

About The Affiliated Alan Gray Companies

At The Affiliated Alan Gray Companies, we understand the challenges our clients face because many of us are highly experienced insurance industry veterans. We can say “we’ve been in your shoes,” and mean it. We use that experience, supported by leading edge technology and a commitment to personal service, to deliver the kind of results that will earn your confidence, and relieve your concerns.

Since 1988, The Affiliated Alan Gray Companies have made it much simpler for our clients – major global insurance, reinsurance and self-insured companies – to enjoy operational and financial success. We do this by offering our clients a complete array of services, all delivered by experienced insurance industry professionals who provide an unrivaled level of personal service.

The Affiliated Alan Gray Companies all specialize in toxic tort and environmental issues, perhaps the most complex and challenging areas insurance carriers face. Within these specialties, as well as other areas, we offer a range of services you will be hard-pressed to find elsewhere.

Our companies and their services

Alan Gray, Inc. offers our insurance industry clients numerous services that improve their operational and financial performance. We draw on our exceptional wealth of relevant experience to quickly comprehend our clients’ issues and challenges. That same experience enables us to craft effective solutions with equal speed. Specifically, we provide:

- Auditing & Inspection Services
- Accounting & Financial Services
- Consulting Services
- Actuarial Services
- Alternative Risk Solutions

Alan Gray Claims Processing Services, Inc. possesses the expertise to deal successfully with claims management for toxic tort (including asbestos, silica, concrete dust and pharmaceuticals) and environmental issues. We also deal with more typical lines, including auto, homeowners, general and professional liability, and multi-line run-off programs. Our clients depend on us, as third party administrators, to handle coverage issues; conduct investigations; evaluate, document, negotiate and resolve claims. We also provide expert legal invoice review. We protect the interests of our clients and save them substantial sums of money. Specifically, we provide:

- Third Party Administration (TPA) services
- Legal Bill Auditing

Alan Gray Investigative Services, Inc. is comprised of professionals who bring anywhere from 15 to 30 years of front-line experience to the tasks of claims adjusting and investigation. We provide insurance carriers with experienced, comprehensive and timely claims management, from notification to closure. We also provide specialized, targeted services upon request. And since there really is no substitute for personal experience in this business, we are able to deliver our services with notably superior effectiveness.

We can handle claims across a variety of lines: Automobile Liability; General Liability; Liquor Law Liability; Professional Malpractice; Products Liability; Nursing Home Liability; Fidelity and Surety; Property Claims

Alan Gray Insurance Services, Inc. provides insurance carriers with highly effective premium collection services, recovering millions in outstanding premiums for our clients. We have the focus and knowledge to be more effective. Our agents are well-versed in the complexities that make premium collection a less than black-and-white process. We receive regular education to stay abreast of industry changes that can impact our performance, so we’re always prepared to succeed.

How Alan Gray Insurance Services, Inc. has recovered millions in outstanding premiums for our clients:

- We work directly with brokers and the insured, bypassing many objections to payment.
- We routinely avoid the need for litigation by resolving many outstanding issues and disputes ourselves.
- We stay current, through ongoing education.
